Gloria Colucci, Garrison School

The following is a summary of the meeting:

- I. Curt from Ward forwarded a revised 9D rendering showing a practice field on lower area as well as a general overview of campus with four proposed tennis courts in the Cedar Spur vacant land vicinity for discussion*
- II. All remaining draft renderings to be submitted prior to next meeting and ideally with budget estimates*
- III. Curt on site TH 12/8 for a followup walk thru on 9D & ideally to try and incorporate a visit to Garrison school and Basil's*
- IV. Curt to meet with committee on Th 12/8 4:30pm.@Haldane Merritt Bld/BOE room*
- V. Suggestion that alternatives for a premier field be submitted in addition to Haldane main site to determine pro/cons as well as cost effectiveness*
- VI. Hyde Park schools currently doing a proposed project, suggested people review their web site for ideas on process,etc..*
- VII. Progress on outreach to Graymoor has been limited with new admin – to be followed up with a letter*
- VIII. A request for Curt to provide from his past work any examples of "useage patterns" presented to various communities to help with defining how we want to present the facts-all agreed our useage community wide is an eye-opener to the average resident*
- IX. Suggestion to draft a letter to the landowner groups inviting them to the next committee meeting on 12/8 for feedback and Q&A, Joe C to draft a letter to be sent from the group members*
- X. After the 12/8 meeting a more definitive timeline to be created with a public meeting to follow, most likely early Jan.*

- XI. Once budget #'s presented it will be important to explain and document a real maint budget for the various ideas
- XII. All agreed the "bar" has been raised on community expectations of maint and facilities in recent years
- XIII. Haldane reiterated by law it cannot fund capital work on areas not owned by the district- same for Town
- XIV. Bills are being paid to Ward per schedule& all groups who agreed to participate in the funding have to date

*adjourn 8:35am
