WRITING WORKSHOP:

DISCOVER YOUR WRITING VOICE

Everyone has their own stories to tell and their own voice, whether the stories stem from imagination or memory.

This is your writing workshop if you:

- are a beginning or experienced adult writer
- always wanted to write but think you're not a writer
- are a writer and need encouragement or inspiration
- are blocked or don't know how to move forward with your writing
- want to hone your craft
- want to develop your characters and scenes
- want to explore stories for personal memoir

Susan provides a safe atmosphere to write, using prompts (evocative prose, poetry, photos, props, music) to spark your creative voice. After writing, we will read our pieces aloud and the group will respond with only positive comments, for everything in this workshop is a first draft and deserves encouragement. We will focus on what sounds beautiful, what stays with the listener, what is memorable. Your unique voice will shine.

The workshop is two and a half hours long and limited to 9 participants. All you need is pen and paper (or a laptop). There is no homework. No 4/14.
